Are Your Staff Aware of Diversity....Are You Aware of Diversity?

In a world of litigation that is becoming more frequent ask yourself the following question.

“Have we provided any training that may help prevent racism, sexism, etc for the staff within our company?”

If the answer is NO then this may be the course for YOU as well as your staff.

By taking the opportunity to explore and understand a little of our similarities and differences we can support all efforts to create a more healthy, inclusive working environment.

Promoting and maintaining diversity awareness within the work place ensures that all individuals no matter what colour, disability, gender, religion, and culture (the list is endless) feel welcome and respected. Each individual is then encouraged to share their skills and experience which will result in a more productive work place. This in turn will enable all employees to contribute to the continual development of the organisation within which they work.

This one day awareness course is designed to introduce individuals to what diversity means within our community and its impact on their place of work. It may challenge individuals though process and is directed to all levels of staff.
